Press Release

THE BRISTOL HOTEL GENEVA EXPANDS AND OPENS A TERRACE IN THE MONT-BLANC SQUARE

Bristol Hotel Geneva is proud to announce the opening of its new terrace ideally nestled in the lush greenery of square du Mont Blanc.

A peaceful hideaway sheltered from noise and looks, this new address at 10 rue du Mont-Blanc is above all a friendly and quality space close to the lake, where locals and visitors can meet over a meal or a drink. The chic, refined and discreet atmosphere of this confidential address creates a real break from the hustle and bustle of the city and lets you enjoy the shade of some century-old trees of the square.

Open from noon to 10 pm every day from June to mid-September when weather permits, the terrace offers seating for 20 - a reservation is highly recommended.

Several meal options are offered throughout the day and week:

- From Monday to Friday, from noon to 2 pm and from 7 pm to 10 pm, the cuisine of Côté Square restaurant, awarded 14 out of 20 points by the Gault & Millau guide, is served there.
- On weekends, the chef and his brigade have devised a simpler and extremely fresh cuisine for lunch and dinner, along with classic snacks offered 7 days a week, from 2pm to 6pm. All "homemade", with a special attention to high quality produce.

Terrace with seating for 20, open every day from noon to 10 pm and from June 18th to mid-September when weather permits
International classics and snacks are served from 2 to 6 pm.
